1 THINGS TO LOVE ABOUT AUBURN-OPELIKA

Robert Trent Jones Grand National Golf Course

ROBERT TRENT JONES GRAND NATIONAL GOLF COURSE

Robert Trent Jones himself proclaimed Grand National as the “single greatest site for a golf course” he had ever seen. Recognized by writers, designers, and players from around the world, Grand National has received accolades for everything from the “world’s prettiest hole” to the “world’s best public course.” Featuring 54 lake-hugging holes open 364 days a year, try your luck at the championship Lakes or Links course, or if you’re pressed for time, 18 holes of one-shotters on the Short Course will still make your heart go pitter-pat.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

One of Auburn's oldest and most renowned traditions, thousands of AU faithful join in downtown Auburn to celebrate tiger victories by hurling tissue into the surrounding trees, lamp posts, and anything that will stand still long enough. A quirky fracas that can last for hours, a blizzard of paper is left blanketing the entire intersection. There's no way you haven't heard of it, but seeing is believing! And here's a fun side note: Auburn is the only city in the country with a line item in its budget for removing toilet tissue!

MRS. STORY'S DAIRY BAR

An Auburn-Opelika tradition since 1952, the secret recipe for Mrs. Story's famous homemade chili dogs reminds us that, thankfully, some things never change. Still in its original location on Pepperell Parkway, the owners of this 50s style walk up are the third generation of the Story family to serve the freshest "fast" food in the area.

The 1200-seat Gogue Performing Arts Center features year-round, phenomenal performances in multiple genres, including outdoor experiences in its 17,000 square feet of open-air celebration space.

The East Alabama Arts Association has been entertaining and enlightening the community through the arts for over 50 years. They offer a year-round calendar of performances and festivals across a wide variety of genres.

Visual arts are showcased in several area venues, including the Jule Collins Smith Museum of Fine Art and Jan Dempsey Community Arts Center. Whatever your preferred media for awakening your imagination and lifting your spirit, engage here and have your world transformed.

LOCAL NIGHTLIFE

Relax and unwind in the warm and intimate environment of Piccolo. Creative specialty cocktails and a full menu of delicious “small bites” are the perfect accompaniment to the jazz stylings of eclectic musicians from all over the South. Cozy up next to the fire and share a couch with friends over a piccolo (the smallest champagne bottle) and a flatbread or fresh caprese. Take a two-block stroll down to the Avondale Bar & Tap Room where the cocktails are top shelf and the windows overlooking College Street give one of the best views in town.

From dusk til dawn, a variety of opportunities to savor the Auburn-Opelika nightlife experience awaits. Check out the largest by-the-glass selection of wine in the whole country at Amperсанд Wine Bar where you can also enjoy your favorite cocktails and snacks. It's in historic downtown Opelika, so while you're in the neighborhood, stop by Eighth & Rail for live music or find the bear on the door to enter Sneak & Dawdle, our nod to the original speakeasys.

Gogue Performing Arts Center

Piccolo

A bald eagle with a white head and neck and brown body feathers is perched on a green football field. In the background, a large stadium is filled with a crowd of spectators. The eagle is looking towards the right.

WAR EAGLE

It is one of the most iconic moments in all of college football: Jordan-Hare's capacity crowd of almost 90,000 rumbling in unison as a rare eagle is released to free-fly in circles around the stadium, eventually landing mid-field on its leathery pseudo-prey. We defy any living, breathing human, regardless of the colors you wear, to not get goosebumps from this phenomenon. Spirit is a resident of Auburn University's Southeastern Raptor Rehabilitation Center where he has been raised and trained to open home football games in this inspirational fashion.
War Eagle y'all.

LOCAL CRAFT SPIRITS

Opelika is the proud home of not just one but three craft spirit makers: John Emerald Distilling Company has been making fine liquors including whiskey, gin, vodka, and rum since 2014, and Red Clay Brewing Company opened next door in 2015 offering a variety of rotating seasonal beers. Resting Pulse Brewing Company followed suit in 2018. Located in the hip arts district in historic downtown Opelika, the venues often offer or are surrounded by live music and a year-round calendar of special events.

DALE CHIHULY CHANDELIER

The focal point for the entry of the Jule Collins Smith Museum of Fine Art at Auburn University, Chihuly's Amber Luster is a masterpiece of more than 600 individual pieces of hand-blown glass. It took four days to install, one piece at a time, the 17-foot sculpture which weighs more than 1000 pounds. JCSM features a varied and interesting permanent collection of American and European art as well as a full calendar of traveling exhibitions throughout the year. Free admission to all.

TOOMER'S LEMONADE

When Toomer's lemonade ranked number one in Esquire magazine's "162 Reasons It's Good To Be An American," it was only about 105 years after the rest of us already knew. Hand-made to order, this tart and tangy concoction is the hallmark of Toomer's Drugstore, a beloved Auburn icon and the only business that has occupied this historic corner since 1896.

Insider Tip:

Cakeitecture Bakery in Opelika makes custom Aubie cookies that you can only get at Toomer's Drugs. They're flavored with their real lemonade! NOM!

Aubie is Auburn's beloved, nine-time national championship winning mascot.

"Women love him. Children adore him. Men want to be him."

MAKER SPOTLIGHT

The locAL Market

When Auburn native Lauren Duncan returned to the community after earning her advanced degree in the arts, she thought it would only be a temporary stop. Lucky for us - and the husband she met who changed her mind - that stop became permanent!

Lauren marvels at the “big and bold circles God has made” in her life. She loved creating from an early age and her parents signed her up for art classes and bought her supplies to keep her busy.

Lauren earned her undergraduate degree from Auburn University and her Master's in Art Education from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. She taught art in Birmingham and later at an international Christian school in Ghana, West Africa. Her desire to celebrate fellow artists and makers coupled with her drive to make art accessible to everyone led her to open The locAL Market in downtown Auburn in 2017.

The locAL Market spotlights high-quality Alabama makers and gives them a platform to show and sell their handmade or grown products while connecting them with the Auburn-Opelika community. The market features a wide variety of goods from leather working, pottery, and calligraphy to paintings and photography, jewelry, and handmade food products from local farmers. The market also features classes where Lauren teaches art to small groups and cultivates creative community.

The unique space is a place that brings makers together and provides them a platform to tell their stories and share their personal process of creating, all in hopes of encouraging the community and inspiring creativity. Lauren says she prayerfully follows the Lord's nudges to paint, write, and love on sweet foster babies. It is her hope and prayer that her ramblings and doodles help others along on their journey and inspire hope.

WHY SUPPORT MAKERS?

Michael Stricklin creates handtooled leather goods and founded his company in Opelika. Having since relocated to Nashville, he sums it up the makers' impact perfectly: "The maker movement is just so real, so tangible. You're not just buying a wallet, or a candle, or a mug; you're buying into someone's passions, their dream, their livelihood. It's as if you get a glimpse into a part of their day - through their eyes - where they spent hours looking over and shaping the same piece that you now hold in your hands. That same care and attention will rest loyally in your hands, in your pocket, and in use for years to come. There's a beauty and a warmth to it that just isn't possible with your normal big box store purchase. ...we hope that you will purchase with a purpose from makers, from artists, and from average Joes just chasing their dreams and living life by their own terms."

Take home your locally made goods from the Market inside J&M Bookstore at 115 S. College Street in Auburn, or shop online at localmarketauburn.com

In the southern most foothills of the Appalachian Trail, you find 696 beautiful acres perfect for rest and relaxation. But who wants that?! Load up your bikes and get ready to tear up some of the best single track the state of Alabama has to offer. Chewacla State Park offers a wide variety of trails, ranging from beginner-friendly with progression built in, to hand-built trails with texture and options, along with a small skills area and the state's only wall ride: a 15-foot-high arc with a 70-degree angle known as The Great Wall of Chewacla. Some of the best trails in the park aren't about speed or skill, but scenery. Creek View parallels Chewacla Creek, which converges with Town Creek at the Natural Falls, a wide cascade that tumbles into a social swimming hole.

Mountain biking gives people of all ages and experience levels an opportunity to get outdoors, and these trails offer great riding in all four seasons. Auburn-Opelika's local mountain biking club, the Central Alabama Mountain Pedalers (CAMP) is responsible for the thousands of hands-on volunteer hours that went into building these trails, and the group offers open instructional rides for all skill levels. Check out the weekly children's Base Camp ride on Saturdays at 10am and the Sunday afternoon Ladies Only ride!
